IN MEMORIAM

RUTH FRETWELL LEWIS

When Earth's last picture is painted and the tubes are twisted and dried,
When the oldest colours have faded, and the youngest critic has died,
We shall rest, and, faith, we shall need it—lie down for an aeon or two,
Till the Master of All Good Workmen shall put us to work anew.
And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame;
And no one shall work for money, and no one shall work for fame,
But each for the joy of the working, and each, in his separate star,
Shall draw the Thing as he sees It for the God of Things as They are!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of '40, about to pass out of this sphere of educational activity, in full possession of well crammed minds, trained memories, and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last Will and Testament.

To the faculty we leave our bountiful supply of A test papers, and unused text books, for good examples to oncoming classes.

To the Juniors, we bequeath our dignity and our power to make a little learning go a long way.

To the Supreme Court of the United States, Charlie Roseberry leaves his ability to argue and to convince.

To all those who wish to inherit our secret hiding places for chewing gum, we request that they see us privately—it would never do for Miss Howery to see them published.

Lacy Pannell leaves his height to "Big Stoop."

J. E. Stephens leaves his ability to play football to brother Clande.

Charlton Graybeal leaves his ability as a soda jerker to Charles Crews.

Alzie Lee Barnett leaves her scattered brain to anyone who can gather it up.

Eoto Russell leaves her ability to think up silly ideas to Frances Galway.

Douglas Coffey leaves his almighty conceit to W. F. Amonette.

Dan Harmon leaves to Tom Wall the privilege to remain in R. H. S. five years.

"Lefty" Payne leaves his athletic ability to anyone who can use it as successfully as he has in the last four years.

Wendell Hall leaves the right front tire of his car to Miss Howery.

A very learned member of our class bequeaths his seven years knowledge of government to Miss Howery.

Mary Peters passes on that "come hither technique" of hers to Dody Jones.

The Senior Class leaves its ability to win three stunt nights in succession to any class who thinks they can do it.

Anna Ruth Mottesheard leaves the basketball squad to "just anyone" who wants it.

Doris Einstein leaves her ability to be "best all around" to anyone who can fulfill the requirements.

To Mr. Goodwin we leave many hours of sleep; and a box of headache tablets, to be used when the building of an annual is in progress.

To Miss Dickinson we leave the peace and quiet of the library.

To Nelson Page, Dan Harmon leaves his sleeping privilege.

Given this day, January 31, 1940, under our seal.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET AND DANCE

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the high school gymnasium on May fifth at six-thirty o'clock.

The theme was "May Day Festival." The gymnasium was decorated with a huge may pole in the center, from which colorful streamers were extended.

The favors were miniature nosegays and tiny boutonnieres.

During the three-course dinner the guests went by the following program:

Invocation ..... George Lyle, III
Toastmaster ..... Douglas Coffey
Response ..... Radford Adams
A Wanderer of the World ..... Charlie Roseberry

Quartet

Druids of Old ..... Mr. Giesen
The Merry Month of May ..... Burniece Pugh

Orchestra

Wood Lawn Flowers ..... Miss Howery
The Merry Month of May ..... Mr. Eagle

After the banquet the Juniors and Seniors enjoyed a formal dance which lasted until twelve with music furnished by the "Commandants."

THE SENIOR PLAY

The thespians of the Senior class did honor to themselves and the school by presenting a Senior Play that proved enjoyable to all those who attended.

The cast furnished their audience with thrills, comedy and mystery from the opening curtain to the last.

CLASS HISTORY

SEPTEMBER 9, 1936

Dear Diary,

We don't think we'll ever forget this date. It's going to be the beginning of four big years. Diary, we're freshmen! When we entered Radford High School today, we felt that we really belonged here. And we really do. But—we're sort of nervous.

We're such a big class, Diary! Why the whole school is practically overrun with us. We joined all the clubs, and are beginning to take part in sports. And we have enough school spirit for a dozen classes.

SPRING

What do you think, diary? Our principal married our history teacher in December—and the school bought a motion-picture machine —and we took second place in stunt night! Also the student body starred in a motion picture!

So many exciting things are happening, and Diary, we're Sophomores!

SEPTEMBER 1937

We've had a grand vacation, but it's good to be back. We're not a bit nervous, either. We must be growing up. Oh yes, Diary, there's been an increase in the census. His name is John Russell Eagle.

SPRING

Mr. Barnett resigned last June, and Mr. Eagle is now superintendent of schools, as well as principal, and we took first place at stunt night.

There was a fire in December, Diary, and the auditorium and the gym were both destroyed. But they're going to be replaced. Many of us have gotten our monograms, and we're actually becoming known in school activities! But next term—next term, Diary, we'll be upperclassmen!

SEPTEMBER 1938

Now we've really begun to "B." New fields are open to us, and we feel as awesome as we did when we were freshmen, but in a more dignified way.

The new auditorium was given a gala opening, and so many people attended. And Diary, we took first place at stunt night again!

SPRING

Mr. Eagle resigned, and now Mr. Adams is principal and Mr. F. O. Wygal is to be the new superintendent. May brought springtime, and our Junior-Senior Banquet, which carried out the spirit of the month to perfection. And Diary, we've ordered our senior rings!

SEPTEMBER 1939

Dear Diary,

Our last year. We have a deep feeling of responsibility such as we've never had before. Our rings, with their dignified inscriptions: "Radford High School—1940," helped to build this up. Stunt night came, and we won another first place, the only class to acquire this honor three times in succession. Then down to Goodwin's Studio for annual pictures, and long, earnest discussions over their respective merits. Senior features, nicknames, verses; we're making our annual! And Diary, in November Mr. Adams was married. He's the second principal to do it during our four years.

SPRING

We gave our Senior Play, and attended the Junior-Senior Banquet in our honor. The fitting our caps and gowns, the baccalaureate sermon, marching into the auditorium, speeches, commencement, annuals in our class colors of blue and silver and—diplomas!

These four years have passed swiftly, Diary. Looking back, we can hardly believe that so much has happened to us since that first September in 1936. Now we are a part of that vast scattered group of R. H. S. alumni, still rooting for the orange and the black.

THE IMPRINT OF PRIDE

PRINTING is the great constructive force of the modern civilized world. It plays the indispensable part in the dissemination of news, in the expression and progression of political ideals, in the records and exchange of commerce and industry. It democratizes education, science, art, music —and broadens the scope of everything it touches. ¶To appreciate its high place in the esteem of an enlightened world, PRINTING MUST BE WELL DONE. Our offering to the cause of BETTER PRINTING is REPRESENTED IN THIS ANNUAL
